CAMP CURRICULUM

The Junior Golf Program is proud of the quality and attention each individual receives at our camps. We have hired a strong team of professionals to enhance the on and off course skills of their junior players. Becoming a better player is a process through experience, good mental preparation and self discipline. The camp environment will be fun and challenging. Each student will walk away from the camp with improved skills in the following areas:

- *Basic Fundamentals of making a sound swing and how to score.
- *Fun Games & Putting Contests
- *Proper practice techniques
- *Developing your winning attitude
- *Introduction to on course playing
- *Knowledge of basic rules and etiquette

Camp Program supported by:
